Building Positive Relationships Facilitated by Julian Robertson, Leicestershire County Council Youth Offending Service	Aims of the Workshop: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• To feel confident in preventing and dealing with 'Challenging Behaviour'• To promote positive relationship between staff and young people Workshop Content: This interactive workshop will enable participants to look at and assess how challenging behaviour can be addressed and possible solutions. The training delivered is experiential in that it utilises scenarios and issues faced by the participants and these real issues are discussed and strategies are developed to combat the negative behaviour experienced. A key element of the training is the participants' recognition of how their own behaviour impacts on the behaviour of others. For example, aggressive, passive and assertive responses are discussed. In addition to this, participants are given full information about how the Youth Offending Service supports young people and a brief overview of the youth justice system. The training also includes input from partner agencies eg Police and District ASB Officers, who are able to provide additional information regarding further support to staff. The ethos of the training is a solution-focused approach to the issues. At the end of the training, participants should have additional strategies to use when back in their workplace. Aimed at: Coaches, Facility staff, clubs, volunteer organisations, sport development professionals with a remit for delivery.	Friday 30th January 2015 10.00am – 3.30pm SportPark, Loughborough University
